Scope and Content

This collection contains the applications and supporting documentation of descendants of early settlers to Cincinnati. Each file has the individual's application and genealogy with photocopies of marriage, death and birth records. Some files have pictures of people and gravestones as well as family stories. This finding aid gives the name of each applicant and the names of the ancestors mentioned in each application.

Historical/Biographical Information

Century Families is a program within the Hamilton County Genealogical Society that honors the descendants of people who were born in Cincinnati between January 1, 1861 and 1911. A person wishing to join Century Families must submit an application and attach documentation tracing his or her ancestors back to a person born in Cincinnati 1861-1911. The Hamilton County Genealogical Society was chartered in 1973.
